

THE ALLEGHENY AMATEUR

September 21-22, 2019 | Blacksburg Country Club

Format:

36 holes of medal play. Total score for two days. New this year, there will be a Women competition of 24 players. The event will have an Open amateur competition of 90 players. There will be a Senior (age 50 and older as of September 22, 2019) competition of 30 players and a separate Super Senior (age 65 and older as of September 22, 2019) competition of 24 players. Seniors may choose to play in either competition.

Entry Fee:

$180 per person includes cart fee for both Saturday and Sunday, which is mandatory. No refunds will be made after September 18. Withdrawals prior to the deadline are subject to a $25 administration fee.

Prizes:

The top one-third of the field in each division will receive golf shop merchandise certificates with a total anticipated cash payout of approximately $7,000. Each participant will also receive a tee gift. Participants will receive two certificates which entitle them to lunch from a fixed menu each of the competition days.

Eligibility:

Open to male golfers having a current verifiable handicap index of 8.0 or less (12.0 or less for Seniors and Super Seniors), and meeting the USGA amateur status rules. Eligible female golfers having a verifiable handicap index of 16.0 or less. Entries are subject to rejection at any time (including during the event) by the committee. Reason for rejection may include unacceptable conduct and/or actions which are detrimental to other players.
